Failure to pass a criminal background check shall make one's employment contract null and void, and/or shall constitute grounds for immediate dismissal, if employment has already begun.

The Superintendent or his or her designee is responsible for monitoring the employee application process to ensure that application timelines are adhered to by applicants, and for reviewing employee applications to ensure that applications are complete. Applications for employment which do not include all requested information, references, and other documentation will not be considered in the review of qualified applicants for positions at the school.

The Superintendent may designate additional employees to serve on the screening/interview committee. The purpose of the committee will be to review and rate applications based solely on the information contained in the application and other documentation provided by the applicant, as well as background checks, references, interviews, and other information made available to the committee in the ordinary course of the process. The screening committee will be responsible to carefully rate information contained in the application.

Applications that may not be rated are:

All applications which meet qualifications will be screened and rated based on established criteria. Applicants with the highest overall qualifications may be selected for interviews.

1. Applicants with the highest qualifications shall have at least one interview.
2. Immediate supervisors, the Superintendent, and/or one or more members of the Board may be included among persons who interview an applicant. However, the Takini School Board may establish and appoint employees to a hiring or interview committee.
3. There will be no travel expenses paid to applicants for interviewing, unless approved by the Takini School Board.

If, in the opinion of the Takini School Board, applicants interviewed for a position are not suitable for the position, the Takini School Board may re-advertise the position or require that other applicants screened for the position be scheduled for an interview.

Background check and/or employment verification shall be initiated by the Superintendent or his/her designee. The Superintendent shall follow the provisions set forth in this Manual when performing the background check. The contract with the employee, even if signed by the parties, shall not be considered executed, valid or enforceable until all results are returned regarding the background check. The legal effect of negative results coming in after the contract has been signed is that the employee's contract shall be considered null and void, as if no employment relationship exists between the employee and Takini School. The Takini School Board has the final decision on all appointments for employment at Takini School.

The Takini School Board reserves the right to select alternate(s) who shall fill a position in the event the selected person declines the job offer or fails to fulfill her/his probation period or becomes ineligible for some other reason.

The Superintendent or his/her designee shall be responsible for initiating the check through the personnel program of the applicable Federal agencies. The background check should cover, at a minimum, the applicant's past five years.

An employee may be hired by Takini School provisionally prior to a background check being completed. If the employee who is hired provisionally has children in his/her care, the employee shall at all times be within the sight and under the supervision of a staff person who has completed a background check.

An individual may be denied employment or terminated from employment if the individual has been convicted of an offense involving a child victim, a sex crime, or a drug felony. A conviction of other crimes may be considered if it bears on the employee's fitness for the safety and well-being of children. An individual shall be denied employment if the individual was found guilty of or entered into a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to any offense under Federal, State, or trial law involving crimes of violence; sexual assault, molestation, exploitation, contact or prostitution; or crimes against persons. contact with children until the charge is resolved, or the employer may place the employee on leave with pay until the charge is resolved.

This list is not inclusive and in no way limits the list which is contained within the disciplinary section of this policies and procedure manual.

The Superintendent shall appoint adjudicating officials. These persons shall serve as the adjudicating officials until they are terminated or resign, or the Superintendent in his/ her discretion finds it necessary to appoint another adjudicating official. In the event that the adjudicating officials shall appear to the Superintendent to have a conflict because of the potential applicant involved, the Superintendent shall appoint an individual to serve as a replacement adjudicating official for the conflicting case.

The School must make certain that the adjudicating officials are well-qualified and trained; that if the adjudicating official is not well-trained that the official is supervised by an individual in the school who is experienced in this area until the adjudicating officials are sufficiently trained; and that the adjudicating officials are familiar with the laws, regulations, and criteria involved in making suitability determinations.

1.30 SUPERVISOR EVALUATION OF EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE

The immediate supervisor of an employee is responsible for conducting periodic evaluations of the employee's performance in accordance with the process, outcomes, and criteria identified in the employee's performance evaluation plan. The employee's evaluation will include expectations and outcomes to which employee tasks are to be focused. The outcomes of the performance evaluation will be used by the supervisor in issuing any recommendations for continuing employment, including continuation of employment following completion of the employee's probationary period.

1.31 PERSONNEL EVALUATION

a. PURPOSE

The formal appraisal program is intended to assist and motivate employees to attain their maximum potential. It is a means of employee self-improvement. The program is designed to analyze the strengths and weaknesses of an employee. It enables the Supervisor and the employee to direct their efforts toward those personal characteristics, skills, knowledge, and abilities that will make her/him a more effective employee.

b. POLICY

It is the policy to conduct an on-the job performance review with each employee on a regular basis as an employee development activity. Promotions, pay increases, and continued employment are based primarily on performance, step increases, educational attainment, and cost-of-living, not on length of service or longevity. Performance evaluations will be considered in decisions affecting training, placement, salary increases, promotions, demotions, layoffs, and dismissals.

c. FREQUENCY OF EVALUATIONS

The performance of all employees will be reviewed on an on-going informal basis. Formal reviews will be made in accordance with the established schedule outlined below:

1. ANNUAL REVIEW

- Annually by the first Monday of March;
- An employee's performance becomes markedly better or worse; or
- The Supervisor or the Superintendent deems it necessary or appropriate.

2. PROMOTION/TRANSFER REVIEW

Within ninety (90) calendar days of transfer or promotion to a new position. At the discretion of the Supervisor, this review may take place sooner if the employee has demonstrated her/his ability to satisfactorily perform the job requirements. Any transferred or promoted employee shall be subject to the ninety (90) day probationary period, and this review is a part of that process.

d. RESPONSIBILITIES

The employee's immediate supervisor will normally be the rating officer. They will be responsible for evaluating the performance of each employee under their supervision, discussing the completed evaluation with the employee.

The Superintendent will evaluate the performance of each supervisor under her/his supervision and the Takini School Board will evaluate the performance of the Superintendent.

e. PROCEDURES

Each supervisor will establish performance objectives for each employee or group of employees. The performance objectives will be based on actual job requirements and will be conveyed to the employee in writing. This will ensure that the employees know what level of performance is expected and understand the basis for success or failure to meet these objectives when evaluated.

It is the supervisor's responsibility to conduct a thorough and impartial review of each employee reporting directly to her/him. If a supervisor is not completely familiar with all phases of an employee's job assignment, a second person knowledgeable of the employee's performance will be requested to assist in the evaluation.

All evaluations will be discussed and reviewed with the employee evaluated.

The following steps may, at the discretion of the supervisor, be observed in accomplishing the evaluation process:

1. Prepare performance requirements by determining how well you expect the employee to do their duties.
2. Discuss the performance requirements with the employee and adjust them as needed.
3. Observe what the employee is doing.
4. Evaluate the performance against the requirements.
5. Discuss the evaluation with the employee.
6. Take appropriate action.

The Superintendent shall prescribe the form on which the evaluation shall be entered.

f. ELEMENTS OF EVALUATION

Some of the elements of the evaluation which may be measured include but are not limited to:

1. Job proficiency - the ability to perform tasks at or above the job standards.
2. Harmonious Working Relationships - the way an employee gets along with her/his supervisor and fellow workers shall be evaluated. Willingness to accept and to carry out orders is also important.
3. Absenteeism and Tardiness - the punctuality and consistency of attendance of an employee on the job is an important consideration.
4. Errors - accidents, errors in work and/or accidents that are attributed to improper performance of job tasks shall be noted and evaluated.
5. Failure to follow rules and regulations - any employee may receive an unfavorable evaluation if s/he disregards written or oral rules and regulations of which s/he could reasonably be deemed to be aware of.
6. Relationship with the Public - public relations is an important part of the duties of every employee.

Each supervisor shall evaluate the manner in which her/his subordinates deal with the public. Discourteous treatment, lack of tact, and other elements of misconduct in dealing with the public are valid reasons for an unfavorable evaluation.

g. PERFORMANCE REVIEW- INTERVIEW

Each employee shall be given the benefit of a private performance review - interview with the rating officer. The purpose of the private interview is to review the ratings and discuss the employee's job performance. The employee will be allowed a reasonable time to enter comments on the review form. The employee will sign the evaluation form, indicating the evaluation has been explained and discussed. An employee's signature does not mean that the employee agrees with the evaluation, but that he or she understands it and that it has been explained and discussed. The employee can outline agreement or disagreement with the supervisor's appraisal. The review form will not be placed in an employee's personnel file until this has been accomplished.

The evaluation form then will be forwarded to the Superintendent for appropriate action.

h. UNSATISFACTORY EVALUATION

An employee who receives an overall rating of "unsatisfactory" on the annual evaluation may be placed on a ninety (90) day probation at the Superintendent's discretion. Job performance will be re-evaluated prior to the end of the probationary period. Employees who again receive overall ratings of "unsatisfactory" will be recommended by the Superintendent for termination to the Takini School Board.

i. ADMINISTRATION AND COORDINATION

The Superintendent or his/her designee has the responsibility to administer and coordinate the performance appraisals completed on the staff. Advice and assistance will be given to rating officers and employees to assure that evaluation and review procedures are carried out in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Each completed evaluation instrument and improvement plan will be placed in the employee's personnel file.

1.32 EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION OUTCOME GRIEVANCES

The Superintendent and authorized federal, or state government officials, shall have access to employee personnel files. Employees also have the right to access and review their personnel file, however, may not remove the file from the office in which the file is located, nor remove or alter any information in the file.

All contracts are one-year or less, non-renewal contracts except for some executive positions where the job description so specifies. Their contracts are not deemed to be continuing. Failure to timely renew or failure to provide timely notice of a non-renewal of a contract shall not constitute a constructive or automatic renewal of the prior contract. These employees shall sign an employment contract or agreement prior to beginning employment, with such contract or agreement on file in the employees' personnel file before salary is received. The Takini School Board reserves the right to annually attach such addendums to offered contracts in an effort to improve the performance of Takini School's employees. An annual contract once offered by the Takini School Board, must be accepted or rejected no later than ten (10) calendar days after the date of offer, and may not be altered in any way by the employee or the Takini School Board, unless the parties mutually agree to the alteration.

Instructional personnel (teachers) shall sign a contract annually to provide services for a predetermined number of days per school term. Days missed without approved leave will be deducted at a rate calculated by dividing the contract amount by the number of contract days to acquire a daily rate for deductions, which shall be prorated.

Instructional personnel shall receive their salary on a bi-weekly basis but may opt to be paid over twenty-six (26) pay periods and shall receive bi-weekly salary payment until the contract amount is fulfilled. The employee shall elect which payment plan he or she seeks at the start of the contract term.

Contract teachers sign a contract to work for the approximate equivalent of nine months, with actual days worked to be established by the Takini School Board when it sets the school calendar. Days missed without leave will be deducted from an instructional personnel's paycheck by dividing the contract amount by the number of school days in that year. 1.35 POSITION CLASSIFICATION

The Superintendent shall develop and recommend to the Takini School Board a classification plan for all positions. The Superintendent shall be responsible for the operation and maintenance of the position classification plan for the school. The Takini School Board considers all positions vital to the smooth functioning of the School and requires all employees to work together as partners to provide the best learning situation for students of the School.

Only those positions approved by the Takini School Board may be implemented. Only the Takini School Board may create or abolish a position.

The purpose of the position classification plan shall be to:

- a. Provide the school employees with a means to identify work distribution, areas of responsibility, lines of authority, and other relationships between positions.

1.42 LEAVES AND ABSENCES

Personnel Leave.

There are specified forms of leave available to TS personnel as set forth in this Section, all of which require advance approval by the requesting employee’s Immediate Supervisor, and in some cases require approval of the Superintendent as specified herein. The Superintendent must obtain permission in writing from the board Chairperson who shall be responsible for approving Superintendents leave request.

No leave shall be allowed during Orientation, the first two weeks of classes, or the last two weeks of school (to include: Personal, annual, and leave without pay) unless approved in advance by the Superintendent. If prior leave arrangements have been made by an employee and school dismisses early, the employee will not be charged for leave pre-approved for the time period in which school was discharged early.

No leave shall be allowed the last two weeks of school before graduation unless approved in advance by the Immediate Supervisor. Denial of leave during such period cannot be appealed and is not subject to this Personnel Policy.

Applications for leave must be made through established procedures and as far in advance as possible. All employees must receive prior approval for all leave requests, except in emergencies. Failure to receive approval in advance may result in assignment of Absent Without Leave (AWOL) status, and may result in personnel action, including termination.

At the discretion of the immediate supervisor and Superintendent, Leave Without Pay (LWOP) may be granted to an employee for extreme emergencies. Leave without pay refers to unpaid leave and will be considered excessive after three (3) days have been granted, and may result in personnel action, including termination.

There shall be no advance leave granted. Advance leave is defined as deductions from future leave not yet earned by the employee. As such, employees cannot accumulate negative balances of leave.

Personnel who take leave for a dual purpose such as for both a school and non-school related activity, such leave shall be leave without pay if the employee is compensated by another organization for the non-school related activity. If such compensation is less than the employee's salary, the Takini School shall offset the balance and shall be made with appropriate documentation provided by the employee. The Business Manager shall be responsible for submitting a leave report to the Superintendent for Takini School Board review (prior to contract renewal), reporting accumulative leave taken annually.

Personnel must obtain written approval of leave slips prior to taking any form of leave. For any employee who experiences an unforeseen medical issue or family emergency, the employee must contact the Immediate Supervisor as soon as possible to request leave directly by calling. Text messages, emails or calls from third parties are not allowable. Employees who are sick must contact the Immediate Supervisor by the start of the School Day to obtain approval of sick leave. The Superintendent shall obtain approval of Leave from the School Board President, and may do so using DocuSign software or other form of electronic signature approved by the Business Office. Any employee who does not seek and obtain written leave approval shall be considered Absent Without Leave and shall take Leave Without Pay for any hours not approved in advance, and shall be subject to discipline under this Personnel Policy. Any employee who is AWOL who does not call or show up to work for three consecutive work days shall be considered to have abandoned their job position and shall be terminated automatically. Under no circumstances will any employee on AWOL or LWOP status accumulate any type of leave during that time period.

The following are the types of Leave that may be approved for personnel:

There are only specified forms of leave available to Takini School personnel. These include, personal, accrued, administrative and leave without pay (LWOP). Absence without leave is a serious act of misconduct, is not compensable, and shall subject the employee to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Administrative leave is defined as leave granted by the Superintendent or his/her designee only for the following situations: conferences and visitations, jury duty, weather-related or road conditional-related school closings, pending disciplinary proceedings against personnel, any other required closing of the school necessitating the dismissal of staff, and/or any other situations requiring temporary removal of an employee from his/her position necessary for the good of the school.

The Takini School Board realizes employees may have emergencies for essential matters that cannot be met during off-duty time. However, applications for leave must meet established procedures and be as far in advance as possible. All employees must receive prior approval from their immediate supervisor in writing on an approved leave form for all leave requests, except in emergencies. 1.57 NON-SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT

Employees have a primary obligation to competently perform the job for which they were employed by the Takini School. Takini School recognizes the right of individuals to meet their overall economic needs, and school staff may perform work extending beyond their basic employment responsibilities at the Takini School as long as these activities do not interfere with or reduce the work performance of the employee at the School, do not result in dual compensation of the employee, and do not cause poor public relations for the School.

Before accepting a second job, employees must receive prior approval of the Superintendent. Approval by the Superintendent is subject to the following conditions: (1) that Takini School's work requirements including necessary overtime will take precedence over employee's other job; (2) employee's job performance will not be sacrificed; (3) the School is not responsible for injuries or sickness resulting from employment outside the School; and (4) employees cannot work in a business which is in direct competition with the School.

Employees may request transfer of assignment from one department or job to another which may be granted when in the best interest of the employee and the school.

Personnel wishing to transfer to another position within the school shall notify the Superintendent of reasons for the request and the position to which transfer is desired. The Supervisor shall refer the request for transfer to the Superintendent who shall make the final decision.

Involuntary:

If an involuntary transfer is in the best interest of the school, the Superintendent will discuss the need for a transfer with the immediate supervisor of the person involved and provide the Takini School Board with information concerning the need for a transfer. The Superintendent shall meet with the person(s) involved to discuss the reasons for a transfer and shall make final recommendations concerning the transfer. Noncompliance with the transfer request of the Takini School Board may result in loss of employment to person(s) involved. A transferring employee shall be paid at the salary, pay, or grade of the new position, whether more or less than the old position, but the Superintendent or lead administrator may consider maintaining the transferring employee's former salary, pay, or grade, but is not required to do so.

Transfers of support personnel shall be made in the best interest of the school and employee preference may be considered. The Superintendent may take into consideration the recommendation of the transferring employee's supervisor prior to transfer. If an employee is transferred to a vacant or soon-to-be vacant position, then the requirement for advertisement of that position is waived by the Takini School Board, and only the position being left vacant by the transferring employee shall be advertised, unless the former position is the subject of a Reduction-in-Force.

1.61 REDUCTIONS IN FORCE

A reduction in force (RIF) is defined as a situation where staff reductions become necessary because of one of the following: (1) a position no longer serves the mission or purpose of Takini School; (2) reductions in funding sources have occurred; or (3) budget shortfalls have occurred or are reasonably projected.

The Takini School Board may lay-off an employee or may reduce an employee's hours if a RIF is determined to be necessary. The Takini School Board, whenever possible, will provide as much advance notice as possible to potentially-affected employees. The Takini School Board shall notify all personnel in writing as to their job status in any RIF's action by the Takini School Board.

An employee laid off due to a RIF's action may be given priority in hiring for job vacancies for which they are qualified. This priority for rehiring shall end, in all cases, at the end of the school year in which the employee was rified. The position offered may be at a lesser salary than the former salary of the Riffed employee, under conditions which are less than the former position of the Riffed employee, or may be a position for which the Riffed employee would normally consider himself or herself to be over-qualified. If a Riffed employee is offered a position, and that Riffed employee rejects it or fails to accept it within five (5) days, then Takini School shall not give the Riffed employee priority consideration for any further positions and obligations of Takini School under this policy shall cease. This preference for rehiring shall also end when a Riffed employee accepts employment with Takini School or any other employer. All personnel must keep the Superintendent informed of their current mailing address in order for them to be eligible for employment.

In the event that RIF becomes necessary, the employee contract with Takini School is considered to be lawfully terminated pursuant to the terms of the employee's contract. Employees who are laid-off or dismissed as a result of RIF shall not have access to the grievance system for employees.

1.62 PERSONNEL RESIGNATION

A contract, certified employee may resign effective at the end of her/his current contract. If the Superintendent becomes aware of a situation which may constitute a possible resignation, the employee shall notify the Superintendent, who shall then notify the Takini School Board within forty-eight (48) hours.

Once an employee has signed a contract, the employee may not terminate or cancel his/her contract, unless the Takini School Board has given its consent. In cases where an employee has breached his/her contract by departing during the contract year, terminating or canceling the contract without the Takini School Board consent, the Takini School Board may consider legal action. The Takini School Board may levy five (5) percent on the financial value of the entire current contract of the certified employee as liquidated damages or as a retroactive salary adjustment, which represents a fair estimation of damages suffered by the School to replace to employee, not including any other damages that may be suffered by the School for which the School may seek legal redress. This amount may be deducted from any remaining salary due and owing to the employee.

1.63 RE-EMPLOYMENT

The Takini School Board will, whenever possible, notify an employee up for contract renewal or non-renewal for the following year by the first Monday in April. Failure of the Takini School Board to do so does not constitute an expressed or implied promise to renew the contract for the following year.

The employee must notify the Takini School Board in writing whether s/he accepts or rejects the re-employment offer within Ten (10) calendar days following the date of notification. Failure to provide the Takini School Board with such notification, writing new terms into the contract, or signing a contract under protest, shall constitute a rejection of the contract offer and shall mean that the employee is no longer entitled to the requirements of the RIF's policy of this manual. Signing an offered contract constitutes proper notice of acceptance, but the contract shall not be deemed executed until it has been signed by a representative of the Takini School Board.

The contract employee's supervisor is responsible for recommending contract renewal or non-renewal of teachers to the Superintendent for Takini School Board approval on or before April 1. If an employee was subject to a lay-off, rehiring shall be carried out on the basis of the RIF's policy.

All full-time support personnel are expected to work 40 hours per week, on a schedule set by their supervisor. Supervisors may implement varying time schedules for support personnel based on the needs of the School after consulting with the employee and the Superintendent.
